A SON of Kelly Moore, of North Middletown, fell yesterday and broke both of his arms. Drs. Fithian and Purnell were called to attend him.

THE ladies are invited to call and see Mr. Primrose's fine display of D. H. Baldwin Pianos at Wheeler's furniture store, next door to Windsor Hotel.

THE Courier-Journal says that Warren Stoner is one of the greatest plunders at the Lexington trots. He is said to have lost $20,000 during the meeting.

REV. F. J. CHEEK is in Flemingsburg this week attending the session of Ebenezer Presbytery, to which his church belongs. The Synod of Kentucky also met in Flemingsburg this week. The Flemingsburg church was one hundred years old last night.

HON. AUGUST BELMONT, of New York, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Co., passed through Paris yesterday afternoon about 4:30 on a special train. Mr. Belmont rides in his private car "Louisville." He is a multi-millionaire and owns a fine bluegrass farm near Lexington.

THREE cars of excursionists passed through Paris Wednesday morning en route for Kansas City to attend the National Convention of the Christian Church. ## Theatre-Goers Fined.

JIM STRADER and "Judge" Durbin, colored, were fined twenty dollars and costs Wednesday in Judge Webb's court for being disorderly Monday night at the Grand Opera House and disturbing the audience.

Manager Porter says that he proposes to have good order in the future if he has to have some one arrested every night. He will not have the disturbers put out during the performance but will take their names along with witnesses and an officer will call on them the next day. The lowest fine for disturbing a lawful assembly is twenty dollars and costs.

If Manager Porter will now only find some way to stop about two dozen young fellows from indulging in the hoodlum practice of rushing out while the closing scene of the play is in progress he will further earn the thanks of the patrons of the house.

Won't Stand For It.

THE Fiscal Court at its meeting last Thursday refused to stand for the Sheriff's advertising to warn delinquent tax payers. For the past ten years, and perhaps longer, the court has paid for this advertising, and it has saved the tax payers many dollars in way of penalties.

Out of consideration for the tax payers the court could well afford to stand for this advertising. Of course, the newspapers would get a little benefit out of it, but who does more to boom the county than the newspapers? And who defends the court when political adversaries attack it?

Paris Postoffice Business.

OFFICIAL figures from Washington show that the total receipts of the Paris postoffice from June, 1899, to June, 1900, amounted to $9,992, just eight dollars less than the sum required to entitle the office to free delivery. The sum includes box rents, newspaper postage and stamp sales, but of course does not include the money order business. Postmaster Bosley informs THE NEWS that the business of the office shows a gain of $2,000 in the past two years. The money order business of the office amounts to $35,000 in a year's time.

Remington vs White.

THE case of B. F. Remington, etc., vs. Charles White, etc., to break or set aside the will of Robertson White, on the grounds that he was of unsound mind when he made his will, is on trial this week in the Circuit Court at Lexington. There are about two hundred witnesses in this case, and the sum of $50,000 is involved. Mrs. B. F. Remington, of this city, is one of the heirs to the estate.

Judge George Denny and James G. Denny are attorneys for the plaintiff and Breckinridge & Shelby and Morton & Darnall for the defendants.

In Judge Webb's Court.

YESTERDAY in Judge Webb's court David and Richard Butler, aged fifteen and eighteen years old, were fined $27.50 each and given ten days in jail, for being disorderly and firing off pistols in the city limits Saturday night. The jail sentence was held up for thirty days. The boys are sons of W. O. Butler, an industrious and respected farmer. Chas. Fields, colored, was fined five dollars and costs for disorderly conduct.

News For The Teachers

THE school teachers of the State will receive next Saturday only one-half of the 40 per cent. of the school funds due on that day. This is due to the high per capita fixed by the Republicans last year for campaign purposes, which resulted in a deficit of $130,000, which had to be paid out of the present year's funds under an Appellate Court decision. Next year's per capita as a result may be reduced to $2.30.

Judge Smith's Sentences.

JOHN STIVERS, white, and Tom Clinkenbeard, colored, were tried in Judge Smith's court yesterday for engaging in a crap game at North Middletown, and were each fined fifty dollars. The other men arrested were dismissed.

Martin Gilkey, colored, who stole six chickens from Dick Marsh, of near Paris, was sentenced to ninety-five days in jail at hard labor.

Democratic Speaking.

HON. F. L. McCHESNEY will address the Bryan and Beckham Democratic Club of Hutchison Precinct No. 2 at Kenney School House Saturday October 13, at 6:30 p. m.

Everybody and especially the ladies are invited to hear this able orator.

Shortage At The Postoffice.

A SHORTAGE of $353 has been found in the business of the Paris postoffice and an inspector has been sent for to make an investigation and find where the mistake or deficit exists. The inspector will be here in a day or two.

HARRY SIMON's big new store was opened yesterday, and large crowds attended the opening. The opening continues to-day and to-morrow. Don't fail to attend.

Parker &amp; James.

If you cannot read this small print at a distance of 14 inches your eyesight is failing and should have immediate attention:

Imperial spectacles and eyeglasses have perfect lenses, always perfectly centred and made of purest material, set in frames of the highest elasticity and on account of greatest durability, united with the utmost lightness and strength. When the frames and lenses are scientifically fitted by Parker & James they give a very great satisfaction for they are perfect. Many of our customers, however, do not know how to fit them. You will get poorly adjusted spectacles, or poor, imperfect lenses, and are better off without any glasses at all with either of these defects. Buy Imperial spectacles of a reliable, skillful dealer, and they will last longer without change and be cheaper in the end.

We have engaged the services of Dr. C. H. Bowen who will visit our store on the second and last Thursdays of each month and invite all to call and have their eyes examined, for which there is no charge. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Next visit—Thursday, Oct. 25, 1900. Hello, 170.
